

Ponoka is Blackfoot for "elk" which is depicted on the town flag.

Town Office/Library

- Check out the library in the summer for their programs/camps
- They even have a cat that lives in the library called Charlie
- Next year memberships will probably be free to go and check out books in the summer

Government Building/ RCMP station

Centennial Center for Brain Research

- Treat people who might have a sick brain or injuries to the brain
- Over 800 people work there

Auction Mart

Agri Centre

Ponoka Legion

- Serve veterans (includes those currently active) to promote remembrance and to serve the community

County Office

- Biggest priority is road construction
- Still build and maintain all their own roads

Ponoka Sign

Ponoka Recreational and Cultural Complex

- 2 indoor skating rinks; used for lacrosse in warmer months
- Free skating and hockey during certain days
- Racketball and squash courts out back
- Curling rink
- Just had reno's done

Ponoka Stampede Grounds/

Frank Mickey Campground

- One of the 5 largest rodeo payouts in the world
- Committee started in 1920 to raise money for the community bathrooms
- 1936 was the first stampede (78 years ago)
- Back then It would cost you $0.25 to get in
- Frank Mickey is currently is the grounds manager at the Stampede
- He Was in charge of changing the seats to metal from wood

Dump (Transfer Station) only if time

Battle River Trail (Thinking Tree) 20 min. walk

- They have signs with local animals on it
- Baseball diamonds, benches, picnic tables along the way

Health Unit/ School District Office

Ponoka Hospital/ Rimoka

- Rimoka: Made in 1959; A place for seniors

Kinsmen Playground

PCHS

Fort Ostell

- Built in 1967
- Got name from Fort Ostell that was built in 1885

Pond and Bucking Horse and Rider

- "the world's largest cowboy riding a horse statue"

Centennial Park